An ASUCD Senate Bill to create a procedure for electing an ASUCD Senate representative to the Academic Senate Undergraduate Council.

BACKGROUND: The Academic Senate Undergraduate Council establishes all policies on the UC Davis campus governing undergraduate course instruction. More specifically, the Undergraduate Council defines the goals and criteria for the quality of course instruction, as well as approving and declining the establishment or discontinuation of undergraduate programs. The council consists of twelve faculty members, three undergraduates, two appointees from the UC Davis Academic Federation, and one graduate student. In order to better reflect ASUCD’s involvement in including undergraduates’ voices in the Academic Senate, a procedure shall be created to enable an ASUCD Senate representative to be selected so that they may be involved in Undergraduate Council meetings and report accordingly.

Section 1. The ASUCD Senate hereby enacts Section 202 O of the ASUCD Bylaws as follows:

O. Academic Senate Undergraduate Council Representative

(1) The Undergraduate Council Representative shall serve as an ex-officio, non-voting member, as the official liaison between the ASUCD Senate and Undergraduate Council until the end of the quarter. They shall attend all regularly scheduled meetings of Undergraduate Council and give a report of current projects, policy changes and goals to the ASUCD Senate when appropriate.
(2) The ASUCD Senate must elect one (1) Undergraduate Council Representative from amongst themselves at the first meeting of every quarter by a majority vote of the ASUCD Senate. In the event that this position becomes vacant, the Senate must elect, by majority vote at their next official meeting, a new Undergraduate Council Representative from amongst themselves to serve for the remainder of that quarter.
